(1) Explanation of Operating Results

Global and Domestic Economic Conditions in the First Quarter of Fiscal 2015

The global economy continued to expand at a moderate pace overall supported by ongoing steady growth in the United States and improving conditions in Europe while growth slowed and lacked momentum in China and other emerging countries.

The Japanese economy gradually emerged from adjustment phase after the hike in the national consumption tax and continued a gradual recovery with overall steady corporate production activity and capital expenditure.

Steelmaking and Steel Fabrication

Steel demand in Japan remained generally firm overall but decreased from the same period of the previous fiscal year due to inventory adjustments in the automobile sector and other factors. The Company made production adjustments so as to respond to the customers' inventory adjustments and aim at making market inventories at an appropriate level.

Regarding overseas steel demand conditions, China's economic slowdown became more apparent and growth in steel demand continued to decelerate in other emerging countries. In international steel markets, a downtrend continued. In addition to a decline in primary raw materials, supply pressure from Chinese and South Korean steelmakers remained strong.

The steelmaking and steel fabrication segment recorded net sales of ¥1,109.6 billion and ordinary profit of ¥74.7billion.

Engineering and Construction

Nippon Steel & Sumikin Engineering Co., Ltd. continued its pursuit of overseas initiatives, including commencing full-scale operations at facilities established in recent years in Southeast Asia, and took steps to enhance the competitiveness of its existing operations. The segment made steady progress in its business projects and in reducing costs amid increasingly severe business conditions, caused by the impacts from the sluggish oil market and a rise in commodity and construction costs, among other factors. The engineering and construction segment posted net sales of ¥70.6 billion and ordinary profit of ¥1.7 billion.

Chemicals

Nippon Steel & Sumikin Chemical Co., Ltd. experienced the firm market conditions for styrene monomer, which is a general-purpose resin materials market, while the functional materials business, such as sales of circuit board materials and display materials, was favorable on the back of growing demand for smartphones and other electronic goods. These conditions more than offset the persisting severe conditions for the needle coke business caused by the sluggish worldwide demand for electrodes. The chemicals segment recorded net sales of ¥52.2 billion and ordinary profit of ¥2.2 billion.

New Materials

Nippon Steel & Sumikin Materials Co., Ltd. decreased sales but increased profit in the electronic materials field, thanks to an increase in sales of surface-treated copper wire, a material alternative to gold bonding wire. Sales were also robust for carbon fiber reinforcement materials for tunnels and bridges as the company captured growing demand related to aging infrastructure renewal and seismic reinforcement. In the environmental and energy field, the company raised sales of metal substrates by effectively responding to motorcycle exhaust gas emissions regulations in developing countries. The new materials segment posted net sales of ¥8.8 billion and ordinary profit of ¥0.8 billion.

System Solutions

NS Solutions Corporation provides comprehensive solutions in the planning, configuration, operation, and maintenance of IT systems for customers in a wide range of business fields and develops leading-edge solutions services to enhance customer capabilities amid changing business conditions. During the term, the company fortified the segment's development structure and took steps to expand its operations in Asia with the acquisition of shares in an Indonesian IT firm. The system solutions segment recorded net sales of ¥51.1 billion and ordinary profit of ¥4.8 billion.

Sales and Profit for the First Quarter of Fiscal 2015

Nippon Steel & Sumitomo Metal Corporation (NSSMC or the Company) posted first-quarter consolidated net sales of ¥1,264.9 billion, operating profit of ¥52.3 billion, and ordinary profit of ¥84.4 billion. Profit attributable to owners of parent amounted to ¥72.7 billion.

(2) Explanation of Information on Future Estimates, Including Consolidated Earnings Forecasts

Consolidated Earnings Forecasts

The overall global economy is expected to maintain moderate growth. The United States is likely to stay firm and Europe is anticipated to keep recovering, but the business recovery in ASEAN countries is becoming more sluggish and China's slowdown is becoming more pronounced, which require careful monitoring.

The Japanese economy is anticipated to gradually recover, as evidenced by signs of improvement mainly in individual consumption, as the country is gradually moving out of the adjustment phase after the consumption tax hike.

Domestic steel demand is expected to stay strong overall in the first half even as the inventory adjustments for the automotive and other fields are likely extend into the second quarter. The outlook for overseas steel demand is becoming increasingly uncertain as the economic slowdown in China and ASEAN countries become more pronounced and a sharp contraction in energy sector activity, caused by the depressed oil market, is likely to have some effects.

Under such conditions, NSSMC forecasts fiscal 2015 first-half consolidated net sales of ¥2,500.0 billion, ordinary profit of ¥150.0 billion, and profit attributable to owners of parent of ¥115.0 billion.

In full fiscal 2015, the Company expects ongoing uncertainty in the outlooks for China and the ASEAN countries while the overall global economy continues moderate growth, with solid conditions in the United States. Japan's economy is also expected to be firm in general.

In the second half of fiscal 2015, the Company expects inventory adjustments to be completed and recovery in production and shipments in Japan to take place. Globally, the Company expects sluggish demand will continue for steel materials from the energy sector and anticipates deteriorating market conditions in China and East Asia. Under such conditions, the Company will continue vigorously advancing measures to achieve the fiscal 2017 objectives of the Mid-Term Management Plan. Negotiations for raw materials pricing and NSSMC product pricing for the second half are upcoming. The Company intends to apply its utmost management efforts and ask for the understanding of customers as it seeks to maintain appropriate product pricing levels.

Regarding consolidated ordinary profit for fiscal 2015, the Company intends to secure approximately ¥370.0 billion by continuing efforts to improve costs and other initiatives, despite an expected year-on-year profit decline caused mainly by a drop in shipments. The Company is also aiming to raise profit attributable to owners of parent by approximately 20% year on year, to ¥260.0 billion.

Basic Profit Distribution Policy and the First-Half Dividend Distribution

NSSMC's basic profit distribution policy is to pay dividends from distributable funds at the end of the first half (interim) and second half (year-end) of the fiscal year in consideration of the consolidated operating results and such factors as capital requirements for investment and other activities aimed at raising corporate value and performance prospects while also considering the financial structure of the Company on both consolidated and non-consolidated bases. The Company has adopted a consolidated payout ratio target of around 20%–30% as the benchmark for the “payment of dividends from distributable funds in consideration of the consolidated operating results.” The level of the first-half dividend is set based on consideration of interim performance figures and forecasts for the full fiscal year performance.

In accordance with the basic profit distribution policy described above, the Company plans to distribute a dividend of ¥3.0 per share at the end of the first half, representing a consolidated dividend payout ratio of 24%.

2. Matters Concerning Summary Information (Notes to Financial Statements)

(1) Changes in Significant Subsidiaries during the Period:

None

(2) Adoption of Special Accounting Methods for the Preparation of Quarterly Consolidated Financial Statements:

Income taxes were computed by multiplying consolidated quarterly profit before income taxes by a rational estimate of the effective tax rate on consolidated profit before income taxes for the fiscal year including the quarterly period under review after adjustments for the application of tax-effect accounting.

(3) Changes in Accounting Principles, Changes in Accounting Estimates, and Retrospective Restatements:

1. Application of Revised Accounting Standard for Business Combinations, Etc.

“Revised Accounting Standard for Business Combinations (ASBJ Statement No. 21, hereinafter referred to as the “Business Combinations Accounting Standard”), the “Revised Accounting Standard for Consolidated Financial Statements (ASBJ Statement No. 22, hereinafter referred to as the “Consolidated Financial Statements Accounting Standard”), and the “Revised Accounting Standard for Business Divestitures (ASBJ Statement No. 7, hereinafter referred to as the “Business Divestitures Accounting Standard”) have been applied from the first quarter of fiscal 2015. As a result, for subsidiaries the Company continues to control, differences arising due to changes in the equity portion are entered in capital surplus and costs associated with the acquisition of shares are now treated as expenses in the consolidated fiscal year in which they are incurred.

In addition, for business combinations that are implemented after the beginning of the first quarter of fiscal 2015, the allocation of the cost of acquisitions, as determined after review of provisional accounting treatment, is reflected in the quarterly consolidated financial statements for the quarter in which the business combination took place.

Additionally, the Company has changed the method of presenting consolidated quarterly net income and moved “minority interests in consolidated subsidiaries” to “non-controlling interests in consolidated subsidiaries”. To reflect these changes, the Company has reclassified its quarterly consolidated financial statements for the first quarter of the previous fiscal year and consolidated financial statements for the previous fiscal year.

The Company has applied these standards in accordance with the transitional treatment prescribed in Section 58-2 (4) of the Business Combinations Accounting Standard, Section 44-5 (4) of the Consolidated Financial Statements Accounting Standard, and Section 57-4 (4) of the Business Divestitures Accounting Standard, and will continue to apply these standards from the beginning of the first quarter of fiscal 2015 into the future.

The effect of these changes in accounting standards on the quarterly consolidated financial statements for the first quarter of fiscal 2015 was not material.

2. Application of the “Revised Practical Solution on Accounting for Unification of Accounting Policies Applied to Foreign Subsidiaries for Consolidated Financial Statements”

At the beginning of the first quarter of fiscal 2015, the Company adopted the “Revised Practical Solution on Accounting for Unification of Accounting Policies Applied to Foreign Subsidiaries for Consolidated Financial Statements” (Professional Issues Task Force Report No. 18)

The application of this practical solution had no effect on the quarterly consolidated financial statements for the first quarter of fiscal 2015.
